ELIZABETHTOWN-KITLEY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The Elizabethtown-Kitley Economic Development Committee is a Committee of Council. Members of the Committee are chosen by Council and they include four members from the community, two Councillors and the Mayor (an ex-officio member).

Mission: "The committee is committed to the promotion of commercial and residential development, campaigning for this municipality as the place to live and work. Under the direction of Council, the Economic Development Committee is to manage the development of Township businesses and industries within an environment that maximizes benefit to the Township and area residents. The Committee is also tasked with the responsibility for the management of the Business Park."
